

PRESS RELEASE

Albuquerque, NM

April 8, 2011

Alan R. Taradash, a senior partner at the Nordhaus Law Firm, became the 4th recipient of the Federal Bar Association's 2011 Lawrence R. Baca Lifetime Achievement Award on Friday, April 8, 2011, during the luncheon session of the Indian Law Conference held at the Hilton Santa Fe at Buffalo Thunder. Mr. Taradash has more than forty years of distinguished service in the field of Indian law and in that time has made significant contributions through litigation, development of legislation, scholarship, and the development of Indian law students and attorneys. As part of his longstanding commitment to Indian country and its people, he has represented tribal enterprises, tribally-owned businesses, and has also worked with individual Indians and Indian groups on a pro-bono basis. Today, he continues to serve those interests, both in the practice of law, and in the mentoring of young Indian attorneys.

The Nordhaus Law Firm congratulates Alan R. Taradash for his unparalleled contributions to the practice of Indian law.
